(8:13 PM) Diana Williams: I can't hear you
(8:13 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy_Allwardt: Diana can you hear me now
(8:13 PM) Nancy Isenberg: Am I the only one who can't hear you?
(8:13 PM) Debra Peters: I can't hear you either.

(8:15 PM) Diana Williams: Is there a lot of these types questions on test

(8:15 PM) Karen Smith: Me too, LuAnn
(8:16 PM) Nancy Firmin: I cannot hear you.
(8:16 PM) Debra Peters: Me to, LuAnn

(8:17 PM) Nancy Firmin: My microphone won't work. Just testing.
(8:17 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy_Allwardt: Nancy F - okay
(8:17 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: It's a good idea to know the root words, prefixes, and suffixes (meanings) - it helps when determining definitions
(8:17 PM) Karen Smith: I'm experiencing stutter typing
SERVER: krodgers has changed their name to kay rogers
(8:18 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: Does that help?
(8:19 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: Nancy F said someone suggested memorizing prefixes and suffixes. I was answering that (8:19 PM) Nancy Isenberg: I can hear you now. Yah.
(8:20 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: No. Nancy F texted that someone told her to memorize.
(8:20 PM) Mary Miltenberger: It's basic to the work so it helps a lot
(8:20 PM) Mary Miltenberger: It a lot of it is already natural you dont waste time
(8:21 PM) Karen Smith: Yes, please do send out
(8:21 PM) kay rogers: Peggy, Melinda and I are finally in, but we can't hear anything. Can you help?

BAC-AHDI_Peggy_Allwardt_chat_with_All from 12-4-2008 Thursday chapters 1, 2 and 3
microphone is set up and you need to make sure that your volume is up to hear us (8:23 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: Kay we will have to meet at another time I can't trouble shoot now - sorry (8:24 PM) LuAnn Miller: If everyone would go over to the left side and click on the arrow at the bottom that says hide and it should hide your mouse so everyone can't see it moving
(8:24 PM) Mary Miltenberger: Brilliant!
(8:24 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: it is not there on my screen - it was there the last time
(8:26 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: this is why it probably is important to know root words, prefixes and suffixes
(8:27 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: yes
(8:27 PM) Mary Miltenberger: yes
(8:27 PM) Theresa Caputo: yes

or "Delete Page" & if anyone clicks on Delete Page, that's probably why Peggy's pages are getting deleted
(8:31 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: you're pulsing again

(8:32 PM) Mary Miltenberger: yes

BAC-AHDI_Peggy_Allwardt_chat_with_All from 12-4-2008 Thursday chapters 1, 2 and 3

(8:39 PM) Karen Smith: Singular = corpus what is pleural?
(8:39 PM) Mary Miltenberger: copora
(8:40 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: corpora
(8:40 PM) Debra Peters: I will have to follow by text, lost voice again.
(8:40 PM) Mary Miltenberger: This one cracks me up, when they dictate "left nare"
instead of naris
(8:40 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: Nobody's talking now
(8:41 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: that's why they need goot MTs to get it right
(8:41 PM) Theresa Caputo: plural of myalgia?
(8:41 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: myalgias?
(8:41 PM) Karen Smith: myalgias
(8:41 PM) Theresa Caputo: No 's' should be myalgia
(8:42 PM) Karen Smith: Oh my!
(8:42 PM) Nancy Firmin: Looks like I am going back to chapters 1,2,3 (8:42 PM) Kim Gepper: and doctors always dictate myalgias
(8:42 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: criterion (8:42 PM) Susan Kelley: Have not heard this used, but I type it alot-the pleural of epididymis
(8:42 PM) Karen Smith: criteria
(8:42 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: urethra
(8:42 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: stedman says to avoid the 'jargonistic use of

(8:43 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: epididymides
(8:43 PM) Karen Smith: epididymis
(8:43 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: epididymes is plural

something we learned from a Stedmans
(8:44 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: yes
(8:44 PM) Mary Miltenberger: you're not gonna hear a lot about urethras either, we

(8:47 PM) Karen Smith: c
(8:48 PM) Theresa Caputo: a
(8:48 PM) Debra Peters: c
(8:48 PM) Nancy Firmin: C
(8:48 PM) Mary Miltenberger: c. because you can pronounce it
(8:48 PM) Kim Gepper: c
(8:48 PM) LuAnn Miller: I think it is C because it is pronounced cabbage
(8:48 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: it's graft, not graph (8:49 PM) Theresa Caputo: Okay so then an acronym actually sounds like a word and not initials
(8:49 PM) Kim Gepper: that seems strange. COPD seems like an acronym as well
(8:49 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: yes, an acronym sounds like a pronounceable word
(8:49 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: you say the letters for c o p d
(8:50 PM) Kim Gepper: ahhhh Gotcha LeeAnn
(8:50 PM) Kim Gepper: Yep that makes sense!!
(8:50 PM) Kim Gepper: ACE
(8:50 PM) Lee Ann Wilmot - desktop: I'm not hearing again - (8:50 PM) BAC-AHDI_Peggy Allwardt: Anyone have other acroynms to share?

BAC-AHDI_Peggy_Allwardt_chat_with_All from 12-4-2008 Thursday chapters 1, 2 and 3 that you can pronounce as a word

(8:53 PM) Nancy Firmin: NG tube, brief form

(8:58 PM) LuAnn Miller: Is credentialing for new people or already certified?
(8:59 PM) Susan Kelley: RMT
(8:59 PM) Mary Miltenberger: I only have the RMT
